

of heart, and the generous and uniform goodness of the lamented Harrison, we realize in his last declaration; what our former experience justified us in believing, that he lived only for his country, and that his death calls for the Nation's mourning.

Resolved, That we sincerely mingle our sorrows with those of the family of our deceased, illustrious President, now called to weep for the loss of a protector and guardian, unsurpassed in his affection and kindness, and whose great object seemed to be the virtue, welfare and happiness of his kindred, people and country.

Resolved, That the old and patriot soldiers of the country, who, with their beloved commander, perilled their lives to redeem the western Wilderness from a savage foe, and under him aided in repelling a haughty and invading enemy from the land, have lost a friend who knew the perils, the sufferings and the deeds of valor of his fellow soldiers, and who, from a sense of justice, would have commended them to the Nation's bounty and gratitude.

Resolved, That the following persons be a Committee to co-operate with the several Committees heretofore appointed by the city authorities, and at the late general meeting in the adoption of any measures hereafter, as a testimony of their respect for the memory of the illustrious deceased, and that these proceedings be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and published, to wit:

Col. Ambrose Dudley, Col. William Schilling, Maj. William Oliver, Maj. T. D. Carneal, Capt. Samuel McCormick, Capt. Samuel R. Miller, Richard Vallandigham, E. S. Lee, Paul Emerson, James Baldrige, Henry Goodridge, James Radolph, Jesse Justice.

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God in his wise providence to take out of this world our honored fellow-citizen, William Henry Harrison, President of these United States, we desire to bow down our souls under this afflictive dispensation; and as we acknowledge the hand of the Supreme Ruler and Governor of Nations, offer up to him our thanksgivings and praises for the good example, the exalted character, and the signal services of the illustrious deceased; and with a view to evince, both our high respect for the lamented President, and also our profound grief under this national calamity, in which, whilst our common country has been deprived of its Chief Magistrate, every private citizen may feel as if he had lost a personal friend.

Resolved, That the pulpit and chancel of this church, be hung with mourning for ninety days.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with our bereaved fellow-citizens and especially with the relict and family of the deceased, and beseech, Almighty God that they may be sustained under their sorrows by the promises of the ever blessed gospel.

Resolved, That in compliance with the instructions of God's word, we desire to render honor to whom honor is due, and by these proceedings express our highest respect for the deceased, manifested through a long life of the purest patriotism and the most unsullied integrity.

THE PROCEEDINGS ON MONDAY.

We are gratified to be able to announce that prompt and cordial permission has been tendered of the use of the Church in this place, for the delivery of the Address, commemorative of the life and services of the late President HARRISON, on Monday next.

The re-assembling of the meeting will therefore take place during the tolling of the Bells, when it will be re-organized, and the Address delivered—commencing at 11 o'clock precisely.

THE LAST DEMOCRAT.

As we would rather help a man up than strike him while he was on his knees, we shall wait for the Democrat to recover from its abject position, before repeating our blows in reference to its recent misbehavior, upon a subject wherein it now professes to feel the greatest "inward grief," but which, like the democracy of the clique, if they have any, they never disclose by their acts.

Its concern, however, for the consistency of President TYLER, is manifested outwardly, and partakes of the same unfairness which characterized its conduct towards his predecessor while living, and which is the true secret why they yet stifle their conscience in refusing appropriate honors to his memory now that he is dead. It is all one with the people and the country.

The time has gone by when either the praises or denunciations of the Democrat can set up and set down such men or measures as it may be for the interest of the clique to advance or prostrate; and we consequently and confidently predict, that President Tyler, after devoting the most profound consideration to the very lucid and friendly suggestions of that portion of his constituents, will not be enabled to find in his past course any thing which commits him against "a new and properly guarded national bank—internal improvements of a national character—and a tariff so adjusted as to afford incidental, yet certain protection to American arts and American industry."

This is all which is expected by his republican friends—on these subjects—and in this they will not be disappointed.

ST. LOUIS BULLETIN.—We perceive that Messrs. CADY and HARRIS have purchased the whole of this popular newspaper establishment from Col. Churchill, and that it will henceforward be conducted in their names alone. Col. Churchill having withdrawn himself from all connexion with the Editorial department several months since, its readers have thereby become sufficiently apprised of the editorial tact and ability of Mr. Cady, to be left without apprehension as to the continued value of the Bulletin. As a medium of early and correct intelligence, and of the soundest and most liberal political sentiments, it has no superior in the State.

Coming it over Cotemporary.—The mail of Wednesday morning was rendered comparatively valueless, by the arrival of Paschall's New Era, of Saturday evening, by way of Glasgow, on Tuesday afternoon. The Era had been sent by the river—and thus, altho' making a route somewhat circuitous, reached its subscribers in Fayette about 18 hours, and in Glasgow about 24 hours, before the other St. Louis papers of the same date. As it had all the news, the Post office was a comparatively quiet place the morning afterwards.

Col. WILLIAM HENRY RUSSELL, of Callaway, has been appointed United States Marshall for the District of Missouri. There is not a cleverer fellow in the State, or one who would more properly and acceptably discharge the duties of the station—not even excepting the worthy and respectable gentleman whose place he takes.

WILLIAM C. BOON has been elected Cashier, and JAMES A. SHIRLEY Clerk of the Branch Bank in this place—the former in place of C. F. JACKSON, resigned, and the latter in place of Mr. B., elected Cashier.

How VERY MANLY!—It was very manly—very—for the senior editor of the Times, after coming off "second best" in a trifling affair, on Sunday before last, to publish it in his paper, and use such hard epithets against his antagonist.

Democrat.

The senior editor of the Times would be extremely obliged to the editor of the Democrat or the besotted brute who dictated the above, to point out the article in the last Times wherein allusion is made to the "trifling affair" which occurred on Sunday before last, in which the senior editor of the Times came off "second best." Come, "Cush," as you "alone are responsible for every thing that appears as editorial in the Democrat" we hope to be gratified.

The Kentucky Congressional elections took place on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday last.

Those of Indiana take place on Monday, and those of Tennessee on Thursday next.

Wonder whether the creature who writes for the Paris Sentinel, has long ears, like other asses?

A FRAID OF TRUTH.

The very coolest piece of insult, to the understanding of the people, which we have any where met with, is to be found in a paragraph in the last Jefferson Enquirer. It precedes a communication, in answer to a writer in the Far West, who had undertaken to prove a falsehood upon Governor Reynolds, in connexion with his appointment of Col. BABER, and is as follows:

"In publishing the following communication we would respectfully suggest to the writer, and to the correspondent of the Far West, that they avoid a subject which may have the least tendency to distract or weaken the Democratic party. In union there is strength."

That is to say: This fuss had better be stopped, for if it is carried on, it is sure to result in proving a lie upon some prominent member of the Democratic party, and thereby "weaken" his influence. So speaks the Governor's organ at Jefferson, and we presume the thing will be "hushed up," for the sake of preserving the influence of such honorable and truthful leaders!

Wonder if the "little I" who is permitted to figure in the last Democrat is a white man?

JUDGE PATTERSON.

Read the following from Judge Patterson, for thirty years the first Judge of the County in which he lives.

MIDDLETOWN, N. J., March 12, 1840.

Messrs. Comstock & Co.,

Gentlemen:—You are at liberty to make such use of the following certificate as you deem will best subserve the purposes for which it is intended.

[CERTIFICATE OF JUDGE PATTERSON.]

I hereby certify, that my daughter has been affected with sick headache for the space of about 20 years—the attacks occurring once in about two weeks, frequently lasting 24 hours, during which time, the paroxysms have been so severe, as apparently soon to deprive her of life. And after having tried almost all other remedies in vain, I have been induced as a last resort to try Spohn's Headache Remedy, and to my great surprise, relief was obtained, and joy of herself and all her friends, found very material relief from the first dose of the medicine. She has followed up the directions with the article, and in every case when an attack was threatened, has found immediate relief, until she is now permanently cured. The attacks are now very seldom, and disappear almost immediately after taking the quantity directed. A hope that other sufferers may be benefited by the use of this truly invaluable medicine, has induced me to send you the above, and remain your obedient servant,

JEHU PATTERSON,

Judge of the Court of C. P.
